NOTES

- The NSSA membership year runs from 1st April to 31st March in the following year, and subscriptions are due on, or before, 1st April each year.
- Youth membership is for anybody who is under 19 years of age on 31st August of the membership year.
- Adult membership is for anybody who is over 19 years of age on 31st August of the membership year.
- Youth and Adult membership fees will be reduced if the Youth or Adult are a member of an Organisation who is a member of NSSA. The name of the Member Organisation must be completed under Membership Details overleaf.
- With effect from 1st April 2016, all sailors participating in NSSA events will be required to be a Youth member.
- With effect from 1st April 2016, Organisation Memberships will cover all types of group membership.
- Local Association memberships are for any groups set up to represent a county or unitary authority and will normally have their own affiliated member units.
- Affiliated member units belonging to a Local Association may join the NSSA in their own right.
- The person signing this declaration on behalf of an Organisation must be authorised to do so.
- Each membership category will have one vote at a General Meeting. The first contact named on the membership form will be the person to whom voting papers will be sent.
- The NSSA Executive Committee reserves the right to refuse membership for any reason.
- Contact James Conway on 01480 531 201 or email on jimbobconway@hotmail.co.uk if you have any queries.

By signing below, on behalf of the Personal Member / Organisation named on the first page, I certify that the information is correct, in accordance with the notes below, and agree to abide by the terms set out above, the NSSA Constitution and any directions made by the NSSA Executive Committee.
